

We do not wish to have any changes to the privacy we're now enjoying as a result of the recent changes in the law. Please do not make changes that would allow calls unsolicited by us to again interrupt our time at home.